Sigh no more ladies, sigh no more. Men were deceivers ever, One foot in sea, and one on shore, To one thing constant never...

Meet Robyn Dulye - Margaret

Robyn is a Junior Performing Arts Major at Colorado State University.

What is your favorite part about being in "Much Ado About Nothing"?

I am really enjoying the setting because it gives us the chance to work more with music and dancing and have creative license with the feel of the time period. It is also nice to work so closely with all the people involved.

How have you applied your advanced acting class in Shakespeare into developing your character? The class really made me focus more on the text. It has helped me in my performance in translating what Shakespeare was trying to convey to the audience.

How does transporting the setting from 1500's Italy to 1940's California affect your interpretation and performance? I am having a lot of fun with the more contemporary setting. You have to have a little bit of a different mind set to put yourself in the moment and react to the time period.
