About Karleen Hughes

Karleen Hughes is from Arvada, Colorado, where she began dancing at the age of four at the Fabulous Feet Dance Academy. Later she danced with the Colorado Centre of Dance in Golden, Colorado and the Arvada West High School Pom Team.

Currently, Karleen is a senior at Colorado State University majoring in Performing Arts with a concentration in Dance and minoring in English.

She has also worked with guest choreographers Mary Wohl Haan and Jacques Heim, the artistic director of Diavolo Dance Theater. Karleen has performed in many CSU Dance Division productions including Fall and Spring Dance Concerts, Senior Dance Concerts, Studio Night and Student Dance Concerts since Fall of 2005. In 2006, Karleen was an apprentice with Canyon Concert Ballet and became a company member the following year. She performed several roles in the company's productions of The Nutcracker including Clara's mother Frau Staulbaum, one of the Spanish principals and the corps de ballet. Karleen also had the pleasure of working with guest choreographer David Taylor in Canyon Concert Ballet's presentation of his Contemporary Classics.

Karleen has been a member of the CSU Tour Dance Company for the 2008-2009 season and has had the opportunity of performing at various schools throughout Colorado. In March of 2009, she performed at the American College Dance Festival at Middle Tennessee State University. Among these various accomplishments, Karleen has also been honored to have her choreography selected to perform in CSU's Fall Dance Concert. Karleen received a Performing Arts Scholarship from the CSU Dance Division for the fall of 2008 and was also on the Dean's List of the College of Liberal Arts December 2008.
