About Mary Wilson

Mary Wilson is from Littleton, Colorado where she began dancing at Little Theatre Culture Center, Inc. under Debbie Vecchiarelli, owner. She trained with Mrs. Vecchiarelli for fourteen years as well as taking classes from Lisa Holtz Odell and Chuck Graham, among others. She also danced with the Heritage High School Liberty Belle Dance Team. Mary is currently a triple major in Dance, Spanish, and Liberal Arts at Colorado State University.

Last fall, Mary had the opportunity to work with the acclaimed Jacques Heim, Artistic Director of Diavolo Dance Theatre and performed in "Territory", one of the company's pieces, in October 2008. She is also a member of CSU's Tour Dance Company under the direction of Chung-Fu Chang. As a member of Tour Dance Company, Mary has performed at various schools throughout Colorado, and one of her original choreographic works is featured in the company repertory. Additionally, Mary has worked with Colorado State University's Department of Music and has choreographed for six CSU Opera Performances.

Ms. Wilson will be graduating in May 2009 and plans to pursue a graduate degree in Spanish while continuing to dance. She eventually wants to teach high school Spanish and promote dance in her school system. She has received various scholarships including the Creative and Performing Arts Scholarship from the CSU Department of Dance in 2008 and from the CSU Theatre Program in 2005. She also received the Dance Patron Scholarship (2006), National and Regional Foresters Scholarship (2004-2008), Distinguished Scholar Award (2004-2008), and Outstanding Student Award (2004-2005). Mary is a member of CSU Mortar Board Senior Honor Society and National Society of Collegiate Scholars.
